

design a space ship workshop

your mission:

The goal sounds simpler than it is: Design a spaceship! But not just any spaceship... An inclusive spaceship.

How can we accommodate the various abilities and needs of interplanetary crews? And what does this have to do with the designs we are making in our Earth-grounded lives? Find out at this collaborative design meets speculative fiction workshop.

Sustenance for this mission is necessary. (Translation: Pizza will be provided.) when & where:

Friday, April 7, 3–5pm

Digital Media Lab (Cathy 435)
or remotely via Zoom

Optional: consider reading the Uncanny Magazine “Design a Spaceship” essay beforehand!
